

Cash boost for households as historic National Living Wage increase comes into effect

Thousands of households across the UK are set to be around £3,850 better off as a raft of economic policies come into force.