

Catch recording changes

Changes to a key section of the catch recording app and website are being planned to enable fishermen to record when retained catch is landed.