

CDEI and the Royal United Services Institute convene round tables to discuss the use of algorithms in policing

The CDEI recently partnered with RUSI to carry out research into the potential for algorithmic bias in policing and how to ensure adequate oversight of these technologies.