

CE expresses deep sadness over multiple deaths and injuries at No. 3 alarm fire in Jordan

The Chief Executive, Mr John Lee, today (April 10) was deeply saddened that the No. 3 alarm fire at New Lucky House in Jordan caused multiple deaths and injuries. He extended his deepest condolences to the injured and the families of the deceased.

Mr Lee attaches great importance to the incident. He has instructed the Hospital Authority to make every effort to save and care for the injured and the relevant departments including the Hong Kong Police Force and the Fire Services Department to investigate the cause of the fire and heavy casualties. Mr Lee has also instructed the Home Affairs Department, Social Welfare Department and other departments to deal with the aftermath properly and provide all necessary assistance to the families of the deceased and residents affected by the fire.
