

CEPOL webinar on identifying vulnerable people and victims at borders

The webinar's aim was to equip border police staff carrying out identification procedures with the relevant skills. This will improve the swift identification of vulnerable people and victims.

FRA presentation focused on fundamental rights safeguards necessary for the identification of unaccompanied children and victims of trafficking. Over 170 participants attended the webinar.