

CE's statement on sixth-term CE Election result

Following is a statement by the Chief Executive, Mrs Carrie Lam, today (May 8) on the result of the sixth-term Chief Executive Election:

The sixth-term Chief Executive Election has just been concluded smoothly. I extend my sincere congratulations to Mr John Lee on his successful election and later today, I will submit a report of the election result to the Central People's Government.

The present-term government and I will ensure a seamless transition with the Chief Executive-elect. We will render all the support needed for the assumption of office by the new term of government.
