

Chancellor hails global cooperation as landmark tax reforms aimed for 2023

The Chancellor has hailed global cooperation after 136 countries agreed a new system ensuring large multi-nationals pay the right tax in the right places.