

Chancellor marks £600m of secure growth for UK economy in Beijing

Closer financial services links with China to support secure and resilient growth in UK as government's number one mission.