

Change of British High Commissioner to Lesotho: Harry MacDonald

Press release

Mr Harry MacDonald has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Kingdom of Lesotho in succession to Ms Anne Macro.

Mr Harry MacDonald has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Kingdom of Lesotho in succession to Ms Anne Macro who will be transferring to another Diplomatic Service appointment. Mr MacDonald will take up his appointment during September 2022.

Curriculum vitae

Full name: Harry MacDonald

Year	Role
2019 to present	Kinshasa, Deputy Head of Mission
2018 to 2019	FCO, Full Time Language Training (French)
2015 to 2018	Jakarta, Counsellor, Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), Politics and Security
2014	FCO, Counter-Daesh Task Force, Multilateral Lead
2009 to 2014	UK Mission to the United Nations in Vienna, First Secretary
2008 to 2009	Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, Assistant Head, Debt Management and Banking Strategy
2007	FCO, Law Enforcement Policy and Programme Lead, Afghan Drugs Unit
2005 to 2006	Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, Strategic Projects Adviser
2004 to 2005	Her Majesty's Treasury, Policy Adviser, Environment and Transport
2003 to 2004	Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, Policy Adviser

Further information

All the latest news is available on the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office page of the gov.uk website at: www.gov.uk/fcdo

Published 10 June 2022