

Change of British High Commissioner to Malawi: David Beer

Press release

Mr David Beer has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Republic of Malawi.

Mr David Beer has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Republic of Malawi in succession to Ms Holly Tett, who will be transferring to another Diplomatic Service appointment. Mr Beer will take up his appointment during October 2020.

Curriculum vitae

Full name: David Beer

Married to: Severine Flores

Dates	Roles
2018 to present	Department for International Development (DFID, now Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office), Country Director for Malawi
2015 to 2018	Advisor to UK Executive Directors at the IMF and World Bank
2012 to 2015	DFID, Economic Development Team Leader for Ghana
2010 to 2012	DFID, Head of Office, Burundi
2008 to 2010	DFID, Humanitarian and Recovery Programme Manager for Sudan
2004 to 2008	DFID, Various roles including; International Development Committee Inquiry lead, Iraq; Policy analyst on Occupied Palestinian Territory; EU co-ordinator Western Balkans Team; and Programme Officer, Corporate Strategy Group
2000 to 2005	Various Non-Governmental Organisation roles including: Tearfund Desk Officer for Rwanda, Burundi and Madagascar; Medair Humanitarian Programme Manager, North-East Uganda; Medair Logistics Co-ordinator, Democratic Republic of Congo; and Youth With a Mission Construction Manager, Uganda

Further information

Follow the Foreign Office on Twitter @FCDOGovUK and Facebook

Published 24 September 2020