

Changes to the Board of NS&I announced

News story

HM Treasury can announce today that Nina Hingorani-Crain has been appointed as a Non-Executive Director to the Board of National Savings & Investments (NS&I).

Nina has had a diverse 25-year career, with high profile roles in the corporate, public, regulatory and charity sectors. Her executive career has largely been in financial services and includes 10 years advising UK and global financial services organisations, followed by 10 years in senior roles at the UK's financial regulator, including as Chief of Staff and Principal Private Secretary to the Chair during the global financial crisis. After leading the establishment of the Financial Conduct Authority, since 2015 Nina has focused on a Non-Executive career and is currently on the Board of the Charity Commission for England & Wales, a London mental and community health NHS Foundation Trust, and the National Residential Landlords Association.

Nina's three-year term began on 1 November 2021.

Further information

The appointment of Nina Hingorani-Crain was regulated by the Office of the Commissioner for Public Appointments (OCPA) and a fair and open competition has occurred.

Nina Hingorani-Crain has confirmed that she has not engaged in any political activity in the past five years.

Non-Executive members of NS&I's Board ensure a sound strategy is in place to meet the organisation's remit of raising cost-effective debt financing for the government. They also act as an external source of advice, have oversight of risk control and ensure NS&I's links with its outsourcing partner, Atos, remain open and transparent.

NS&I is one of the largest savings organisations in the UK, offering a range of savings and investments. All products offer 100% capital security because NS&I is backed by HM Treasury.

Published 4 November 2021