

Charities providing food, shelter and warmth given support

Over 800 charities and community organisations struggling with increased demand have been awarded funding as part of a £76 million package.