

Charities to benefit from support for rough sleepers during pandemic

Over 130 charities are set to benefit from £6m of government funding to allow them to continue their work supporting rough sleepers during the pandemic.