

Charity Commission agrees terms for independent review of Professional Footballers' Association Charity's management and governance

The review will examine the charity's governance, management and finances