

Charity Commission disqualifies former trustee of The Mahfouz Foundation and secures recovery of £50,000

The Charity Commission has disqualified a former trustee of The Mahfouz Foundation as part of its statutory inquiry into the charity, which has today concluded with the publication of an official report.