

Charity Commission disqualifies former trustees of genealogy charity and recovers £113,000

The Charity Commission has disqualified two former trustees of Burke's Peerage Foundation as part of its statutory inquiry into the charity, which has today concluded with the publication of an official report.