

Charity Commission takes regulatory action against trustees who mismanaged Newark charity

The Charity Commission has secured voluntary undertakings from three trustees of Hope House School.