

Charity regulator disqualifies former trustee as Welsh animal sanctuary winds up

The Charity Commission has disqualified one of the former trustees of an animal charity in North Wales, after an official inquiry found serious misconduct and/or mismanagement.