

Charter flight from Jamaica for British travellers seeking to return to the UK

Around 140 British travellers will be able to get home from Jamaica on a charter flight organised by the Government in partnership with the travel company TUI.