

Cheaper and better buses in £7 billion package to level up transport outside London

Funding for major local transport schemes across the UK will speed up journeys and make services more reliable and greener.