

Chesterfield event marks completion of natural flood management project 'slowing the flow to the Calow'

A £275,000 project to reduce flood risk in Chesterfield using innovative natural flood defences has completed