

Chesterfield man nets £431 penalty for fishing without a licence

A 22-year-old man from Chesterfield has been successfully prosecuted by the Environment Agency after being found guilty of fishing without a licence.