Child protection guide now available in all EU official languages

It aims to strengthen the response of all relevant actors for child protection. It includes a focus on child victims of trafficking and children at risk. FRA just published new language versions in Czech, Danish, Estonian, Finnish, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Portuguese, Slovak, Slovenian and Swedish.