

Child Safeguarding Practice Review

Panel: third national review

Letters between:

- interim chair of the independent Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel, Karen Manners QPM
- panel member Mark Gurrey
- Secretary of State for Education, Gavin Williamson
- Minister for Safeguarding, Rachel Maclean, Parliamentary Undersecretary for Children and Families, Will Quince, and Minister of State for Care and Mental Health Gillian Keegan

The panel's letter announces a national child safeguarding practice review into non-accidental injury in children under one. It also gives further details about the review including:

- terms of reference
- details of panel members carrying it out
- timescale

Gavin Williamson's letter welcomes the announcement of the review.

The letter from Rachel Maclean, Will Quince and Gillian Keegan sets out the action the government is taking in response to the review.