

Childcare applications for parents of 9-month-olds now open

Hundreds of thousands of families set to benefit as working parents of 9-month-olds can now apply for government-funded childcare for first time.