

Christina – A New Folk Performance #dundeewestend

Fresh from the sell-out Edinburgh Fringe run of her acclaimed production "Roots", Elisabeth Flett brings her one-woman show "Christina" to Blackness Library this Tuesday.

It takes place at the library on Tuesday at 3pm.

The show, commissioned by the Friends of Wighton, is inspired by the 19th century manuscript book of Christina Gib of Maulesden House, Brechin. E

Elisabeth has researched the elusive Christina's story to create a fascinating musical and historical journey.

It is a free event but please book here.
