

Closed consultation: Water fittings: preventing backflow of water from toilet cisterns

Seeking views on updating toilet specifications to stop cistern water from re-entering drinking water in properties and to understand the causes of leaking toilet valves.