

CMA cautions will writing and legal service providers as new guidance launched

CMA issues letters to businesses alongside new guidance following an investigation into unregulated providers of will writing, online divorce and pre-paid probate services.