

CMA consultation responses and evidence regarding regulation and the role of regulators in the UK

The CMA has provided evidence to the House of Lords and published two consultation responses on regulation and the role of regulators in the UK.