

CMA finds competition concerns in merger of emergency service software suppliers

NEC Software Solutions' purchase of SSS raises competition concerns in the supply of vital software to emergency services and transport customers.