

CMA launches formal investigation into Vodafone / Three merger

Investigation will examine the potential impact the proposed deal could have on competition for consumers and businesses.