

CMA launches Green Agreements Guidance to help businesses co-operate on environmental goals

New guidance published by the CMA will help businesses understand how they can collaborate on environmental sustainability goals without breaking the law.