

CMA launches programme of work to support growth mission

The CMA announces a new growth-focused work programme from its Microeconomics Unit alongside publication of its third State of Competition report.