

CMA letter to local authorities and local transport bodies about street furniture contracts containing exclusivity clauses

The Competition and Market Authority (CMA) has published an open letter for local authorities and local transport bodies about street furniture contracts containing exclusivity clauses regarding advertising.