

CMA probes possible bid-rigging in relation to school improvement fund

The CMA has launched an investigation into suspected bid-rigging in relation to a key government fund for improving the condition of school buildings.