

CMA publishes first monitoring report on road fuel market

The CMA's first monitoring report on road fuel shows that prices at the pump have gone up by over 11 pence per litre while the wider data gathered on margins and spreads shows a mixed picture.