

CMA to scrutinise infant formula market through a market study

The market study into infant formula is part of the CMA's ongoing work to contain cost of living pressures in the groceries sector.