

CMA will not recommend renewal of shipping competition exemption

The CMA will not recommend renewing a 'block exemption', which provides an exemption from competition law for certain forms of cooperation between liner shipping companies.