

CMO for England announces four new cases of novel coronavirus

Four further patients in England have tested positive for COVID-19, bringing the total number of cases in the UK to thirteen.

The virus was passed on in the Diamond Princess cruise ship and the patients are being transferred from Arroe Park to specialist NHS infection centres.

Published 23 February 2020