

Commission finds misconduct by charity that claimed to deliver public safety messages via Bluetooth

Trustees disqualified after charity that owed £17million in business rates went into liquidation