

Commissioner for Census and Statistics undergoing home quarantine

The Census and Statistics Department today (November 1) said that the Commissioner for Census and Statistics, Mr Leo Yu, is undergoing home quarantine in accordance with the guidelines of the Centre for Health Protection of the Department of Health, as a household member has tested positive for COVID-19 through a nucleic acid test. Mr Yu will work from home during the quarantine period.

Mr Yu has conducted COVID-19 rapid antigen tests regularly with negative test results obtained. He also tested negative after conducting a COVID-19 rapid antigen test today. He has worn masks and has followed relevant disease prevention measures at work.