

Commissioner for Development of Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area tests positive for COVID-19

A spokesman for the Constitutional and Mainland Affairs Bureau (CMAB) said today (October 6) that the Commissioner for the Development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, Mr Tommy Yuen, has tested positive for COVID-19 through a rapid antigen test. He is undergoing isolation in accordance with the guidelines of the Centre for Health Protection of the Department of Health.

Mr Yuen last went to work on September 30. He wore masks and followed relevant disease prevention measures at work, including conducting rapid antigen tests daily. He has no recent travel history.

The CMAB will conduct thorough cleaning and disinfection operations at the office concerned and will continue to implement disease prevention measures vigorously.
