

Commissioner for the Development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area visits Malaysia to promote GBA's development opportunities and Hong Kong's strengths (with photos)

The Commissioner for the Development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, Ms Maisie Chan, began a two-day visit to Malaysia today (November 7) to promote the development opportunities of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area (GBA) and Hong Kong's unique strengths and to promote exchange and collaboration in different areas between the two places.

Ms Chan called on officials of the Ministry of Investment, Trade and Industry of Malaysia this morning to learn about the latest developments in Malaysia and to introduce the developments of the GBA. She then hosted a luncheon for the Hong Kong-Malaysia Business Association to exchange views with members of the local business community and to promote how Hong Kong as a core city of the GBA can help Malaysian companies seize the unlimited opportunities brought about by GBA developments. In the afternoon, Ms Chan called on the Chinese Embassy in Malaysia and met with the Minister Counsellor, Mr Lin Shiguang.

Tomorrow (November 8), Ms Chan will attend "The Arising Business Opportunities – The Greater Bay Area and Hong Kong" Seminar jointly organised by the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area Development Office and Invest Hong Kong, and co-organised by the Associated Chinese Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur. Ms Chan will deliver a keynote address at the seminar to promote the strong impetus for growth and development potential of the GBA to Malaysian enterprises and talent and encourage them to capitalise on Hong Kong's important roles as a "super connector" and a "super value-adder" to tap into the vast markets of the GBA and of the Mainland.

