The Commissioner of Customs and Excise, Ms Louise Ho, today (December 18) met with the Director General in Guangzhou Customs District, Mr Li Quan, in the Customs Headquarters Building to exchange views on further deepening co-operation between the two Customs administrations.

Ms Ho welcomed Mr Li's visit to Hong Kong Customs with his delegation, and chaired a meeting with the delegation. During the meeting, the two Customs administrations discussed multiple issues, including the co-operation on monitoring cross-boundary sea cargo, drug enforcement work, the prevention and control of risks and fostering co-operation on facilitating procedures of the exportation of motor vehicles between the two Customs administrations.

On the same day, the delegation also visited the Customs Marine Base on Stonecutters Island to learn about the department's marine patrol and law enforcement work.
