

Commissioner of Customs and Excise meets Director General in Shanghai Customs District (with photos)

The Commissioner of Customs and Excise, Ms Louise Ho, today (October 23) met with the Director General in Shanghai Customs District, Mr Wang Wei, in the Customs Headquarters Building (CHB) to exchange views on expediting the development of Smart Customs and deepening co-operation in risk management.

Ms Ho welcomed Mr Wang's visit to Hong Kong Customs with his delegation and chaired the meeting. To fully enhance the scope of mutual co-operation, the two Customs administrations had in-depth discussions on multiple issues, including fostering the implementation of the Smart Customs Blueprint and application of relevant technologies, expanding Shanghai-Hong Kong Customs big data collaboration, and strengthening co-operation in risk management.

The delegation today toured the Exhibition Gallery and Customs Computer Forensic Laboratory in the CHB, and will visit the Kwai Chung Customhouse and the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge Hong Kong Port tomorrow (October 24) to learn more about the operation of passenger and cargo clearance of Hong Kong Customs.
