

Companies House customers encouraged to file online due to paper processing delays

The water supply issue at our Cardiff office has been resolved, but it's a busy time with many companies due to file annual accounts before the end of December.