

Companies House implements new powers with new non-compliance penalties

The new regime will drive better compliance and supports the agency's key objectives to improve the accuracy of the UK company register and crack down on misuse.