

Companies Registry to resume normal public services starting from September 15

To align with the announcement by the Government yesterday (September 10) to resume normal public services from September 15, the Companies Registry announced today (September 11) that it will resume normal services from September 15 while continuing to implement targeted measures to reduce social contact and to apply infection control measures.

The Registry's counter services will resume normal opening hours with effect from September 15:

13/F and 14/F, Queensway Government Offices and
12/F, One Kowloon, Kowloon Bay

Monday to Friday
8.45am to 5.30pm

To achieve social distancing with a view to reducing the risk of the spread of the COVID-19 virus in the community, the Registry advises customers to continue to deliver documents electronically or by post. The Registry's services on registration of documents and public search services will continue to be provided electronically through the e-Registry (www.eregistry.gov.hk), the Cyber Search Centre (www.icris.cr.gov.hk) and the website of the Registry for Trust and Company Service Providers (www.tcsp.cr.gov.hk).

Please check the latest announcements on the Registry's website at www.cr.gov.hk for details.

For enquiries, please call 2867 2600 or contact the Registry via email at crenq@cr.gov.hk.
