

Company directors convicted after 2 major fires

Suspended prison sentences handed to company directors following major fires and pollution incident in Kidderminster