

Company shut down after consumers hit by direct debit scam

The company deceived consumers into signing up to a subscription charging them almost £30 a month